

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
BEAUMONT DIVISION

JOE DANIEL ADAMS	§
VS.	§	CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:23-cv-389
JAMES PAYNE, ET AL.	§

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Plaintiff Joe Daniel Adams, formerly an inmate in the Shelby County Jail, proceeding pro se, filed this civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against several Defendants.

Discussion

When, as in this case, jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship, 28 U.S.C. § 1391 provides that venue is proper only in the judicial district where the defendants reside or in which the claim arose. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a), for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, a district court may transfer any civil action to any other district or division where it could have been brought.

The actions allegedly taken by Defendants took place in Shelby County, which is located in the Lufkin Division of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. Plaintiff's claims therefore arose in the Lufkin Division. In addition, Defendants appear to reside in Shelby County. However, this case was filed in the Beaumont Division.

The court has considered the circumstances and determined that the interest of justice would be served if the complaint were transferred to the division in which the claims arose. It is accordingly

ORDERED that this civil rights action is TRANSFERRED to the Lufkin Division of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas.

SIGNED this the 7th day of December, 2023.
